THE 1965
HIGHLANDER
VOLUME XIII

Published By
The Annual Staff
of Highland
High School
Granger, Ohio

Foreword

As the sun is the key to all nature so is education the key to knowledge and understanding. Our educational system here at Highland is geared to help the individual unlock the doors through understanding so that he might find the answers to problems not only in the outside world, but also within his own personal world. The students pictured in this book will face many problems and decisions in the upcoming years, but every experience pictured among the pages of this annual have helped to mold their character, whether it was sportsmanship, leadership, co-operation or some other quality, their high school helped to form better citizens for the future. As the rays of the sun provide life for our world we hope that the experiences and education obtained at Highland will be as a ray in the futures of our students.

Oh, Highland High School now to thee,
We sing our song of loyalty!
We sing thy glory and thy fame,
All praises to thy honored name.
Come and join us while we sing,
We'll make the near-by hillsides ring.
Our faith in thee will never die,
We'll always love thee, Highland High.

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

School Board and Administration

Contented only with a job well done, the members of the Highland Board of Education continue to work to make our schools the best possible. Their goals are to provide the community with the highest educational standards possible at the lowest cost to the public. The members of the School Board are Mrs. Elsie Hummel, Vice-President; Mr. Howard E. Cartwright, Mrs. Evelyn Bruns-kill, Clerk; Mr. William H. Kelly, President; Mr. L. O. Vermillion, Superintendent; Mr. Glenn D. Kaufman, Mr. Alva G. Donkin.

Mr. Lewin O. Vermillion is superintendent of the Highland Local Schools. He has the responsibility of managing the entire school system. His duties include taking charge of transportation, supervising instruction, and aiding the School Board in setting up the budget.

When advice or assistance is requested of Mr. Chaffee, he is always prepared to take time from his busy schedule to take a personal interest in a student. This is an excellent example of how through his personal interest in a student he has helped to change the image held in many students minds from one of a "gruff principal" to one of a friend.

Our librarian, Mrs. South, works hard to keep our library well stocked with recent material.

Library Staff

Guidance

Mrs. Myers, our guidance counselor, can help students find the answer to many problems. Here she is shown having a group conference about scheduling.

The students that assist Mrs. South are M. Wagar, B. Wilson, C. Paisley, L. Bonnett, I. Dyke, N. Farnsworth, and J. Keen.

Our delicious and nutritious meals are carefully planned, prepared, and served under the direction of Mrs. Kraus, the supervisor over all the school district's cafeterias. Her very able assistants are Mrs. Juris, Mrs. Stein, Mrs. Coddington, and Mrs. Crocker.

Cooks and Helpers

The cooks are assisted in their kitchen chores by these students: R. Rush, B. Searcey, D. Brown, K. Fites, and J. Bokros.

Daily announcements are made by student announcers Sue Weidanz and Linda Farnsworth.

Harley C. Brunskill

1894 - 1965

No man is an island, entire of itself; every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main; if a clod be washed away by the sea, Europe is the less, as well as if a promontory were, as well as if a manor of thy friends or of thine own were; any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind; and therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; it tolls for thee.

John Donne

The spirit of friendliness and co-operation which marks Highland High School is also a reflection of the personality of Mr. Harley Brunskill and others of the custodial staff, Mrs. Opal Shirey and Andy Baker.

At left, they are planning their work assignments. It was through such meetings as this, that the faculty and students were able to enjoy a clean and wholesome atmosphere in their educational, athletic and social activities.

STUDENT LIFE

A new teacher anticipates students reactions.

The empty halls will soon be filled with enthusiastic students.

Student Life Begins First Day

Students are reunited with friends and discuss their summer activities.

With The of School

The introductory assembly gives new students a glimpse of what is in store for them and a chance to meet the teachers.

A quick game of ping pong.

A Change

By explaining an inside joke so that others may laugh.

There are many ways to escape the sometimes nerve-racking or monotonous tasks of school. These people have found a few.

Just plain relaxing.

Even a break from the routine lunch by enjoying a springtime picnic.

Teachers also find their own place and way of watching a game.

A unique way of studying provides an escape from the tiresome study halls.

Of Pace

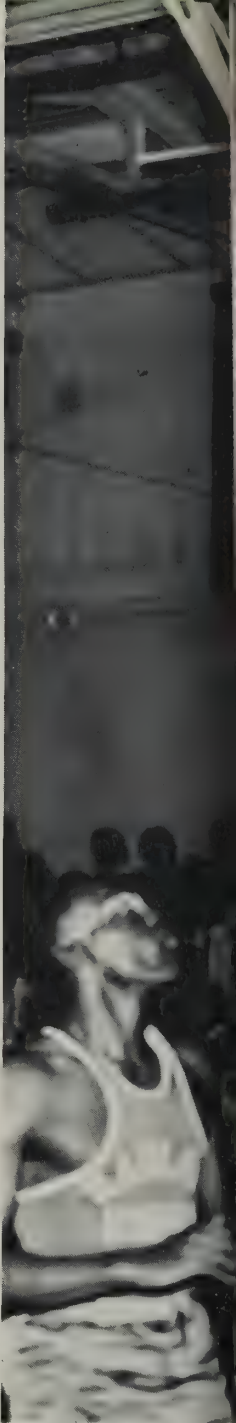

The students anxiously await the distribution of their annuals.

Teachers As Well As Students

Students and faculty alike had a good time bowling at the Prom.

Share In The Fun

The issues were debated at our mock elections assembly.

Many times during the year
our students get that trapped feeling, but this is ridiculous.

Mr. Brenner goes in for a lay up.

Some players found the game a bit strenuous.

An overly friendly opponent desires to shake hands with Mr. Beckman.

PRACTICE...

The basis of every victory is the hours of practice that have conditioned the players.

Running, passing, and tackling all are a part of the vigorous work-out.

Pushing the sled is probably the most dreaded chore.

M. Prueter, M. Webster, C. Coddington, L. Young, D. Barnett, D. Winland. (top row) R. Kelly, R. Huff, M. Miller, B. Betz, K. Porter, J. Leach, A. Hood, G. Kramer.

Another Opening, Another Show. . .

This year, resplendent in new uniforms of black, white, and green, Highland's band took the field for another successful season that included performances at the Medina County Fair, Hornet football games, the Band - o - rama, and the Hinckley Memorial Day ceremonies. Entertainment, spirit, and force were also provided at the basketball games by the Pep Band, a smaller regiment of the Hornet's marching and concert band.

Hornet band members await the cue to start the entry of the show.

The hot light of a bright fall day, the glint of brass and silver, the stiffness of the new, clean uniforms, the formality of portraits, the hats that don't quite fit, the heavy horns, the drying grass, dull chalk lines, the high, quiet lights - all reflected in a moment, all remembered. . .

Here are two senior band members displaying the new uniforms. The black jackets and trousers, the green and white over-lays, and the shiny silver eagles on the hats make the band look their sharpest.

Once Upon A Time...

The juniors having chosen their class play, tried out for the various parts being offered.

But it wasn't all work—a little cutting up between acts made rehearsals more enjoyable.

Of course it wouldn't be successful without the help of all the backstage crew—the prompters...

Prom Activities

While swimming a couple fellows find their chance to get even with Mr. Vitchner.

Friday, April 23, 1965, will be a date long remembered in the lives of the junior and senior class. It all began with the pre-prom activities. There was swimming at the Y.W.C.A. in Akron, bowling at Riveria Lanes in Fairlawn, and a movie was shown at the Medina Theater entitled, "Good Neighbor Sam." Everyone was kept busy and had fun. A delicious meal was served under the atmosphere of the Mardi Gras. Following the banquet the scene changed to Wedgewood Country Club for a gala evening of dancing. Thanks to the work of the junior class and their advisors a wonderful day was enjoyed by everyone.

Reverend Lyons of the Granger Methodist was the guest speaker at the Prom banquet. He based his theme around the comic strip, Peanuts, and showed various cartoons from this series to illustrate characteristics common to all of us.

At Wedgewood Country Club dancing was enjoyed to the music of the Frankie Reynolds band.

The Mardi

The banquet was enjoyed in the high school gymnasium which was beautifully decorated in the theme "The Mardi Gras."

The Senior Will was read by the Senior class president Tom Stuver and the vice-president Rennick Andreoli.

The Senior Prophecy written by the Junior Class was delivered by Ron Ritz.

Gras

The teachers and students formed a line and shook the rafters as they danced to the bunny hop.

SENIOR ACTIVITIES

The rhythmic beat of "Pomp and Circumstance" carries seniors toward their final assembly as students of Highland High.

Awards Received

Pat Hayden, Phyllis Bruning, Penny Brazik, and Kathy Thompson were recognized for their service in cheering our team.

By Seniors

High-ranking seniors were recognized for their comprehensive course completed in high school by receiving the special state certificate.

Tom Stuver's distinctive achievements in the National Merit Scholarship Tests are acknowledged by Mr. Chaffee.

Linda Kaufman, salutatorian; Marilyn Barnett, valedictorian; received awards for their outstanding, academic records.

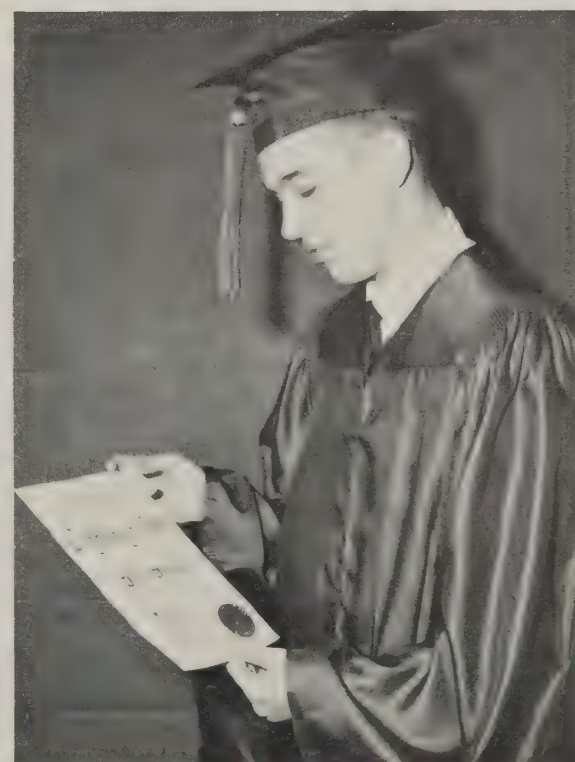

Cheryl Schmelzer was this year's winner of the John Phillip Sousa award, the bands most distinctive award.

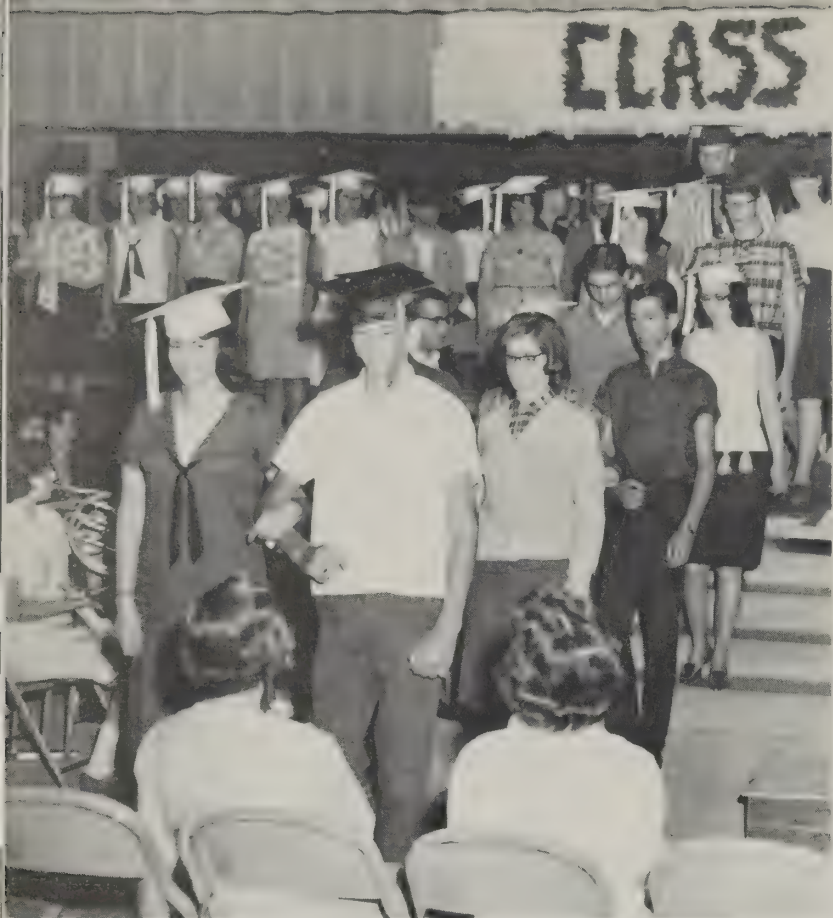

Annually the Chopin award is presented to the pianist contributing most to the schools musical presentations. This year the award was given to Penny Brazik.

David Webster was Highland's first art student to be awarded the Hallmark Award. His work along with the work of four other Ohio students was displayed in New York.

Seniors practice and practice for their final moments at Commencement night.

In the final moments Mr. Chaffee, as anxious as the seniors, repeats well-known directions, oft-heard advice, and proud compliments.

Laughter and friendly grouping accompanied the preparation.

The salutatorian, Linda Kaufman, graduated with a 3.786 average. She, along with Kathy Mladek was awarded the annual Highland Council Scholarship.

The valedictorian, Marilyn Barnett, graduated with a scholastic average of 3.949. Due to her outstanding score on the National Merit Scholarship test, she was awarded the Ford Foundation Scholarship.

Seniors look to the moment of graduation with mixed feelings of apprehension and anticipation. College and careers await them, but school and many old friends must be left behind. Seniors will miss the activities enjoyed this year; the play, the Senior - Faculty game, the last concert, the games, homecoming, the prom, and the organizations. Highland High will remember this year's senior class with pride, and the class of '65 will never forget its alma mater.

Dr. Shriver, President of Miami University, brings smiles to the faces of the seniors and the audience alike when he said he would cut his speech short due to the hot weather.

Mrs. Hummel congratulates Katy Nell as she is handed her diploma.

A senior ensemble sings its last song together, 'The Halls of Ivy.'

Turning of the tassel marks the turning of a page in the volume of each of the students' lives.
